He lives this secret!

At home with his family

Mother and Daddy McQuilkin

The 'AS . . . SO' Secret

A Greeting from Our President to the Seniors

"Remember whose son you are, and be a good boy." The famous Bishop Vincent is quoted as saying this to his young son as the boy started on a trip. The boy cheerfully called back: "Remember whose Daddy you are, and be a good man."

Well, Seniors, as you go forth from C.B.C., shall I tell you to remember to be "sons and daughters noble; to whom His Grace appeared," to adorn your Alma Mater?

You could respond that you will pray for me and the others on faculty and staff that we will be faithful to you young people in holding up the standard of knowing Him and making Him known.

It is right to "remember them that had the rule over you, even that spake unto you the Word of God" (Heb. 13:7). But let our message to one another be in the words of the revised version of 2 Timothy 2:8: "Remember Jesus Christ."

And this is what I want you to remember about Him: "As--- So." "As He is, so are we in this world" (1 John 4:17).

As Christ is not of this world, so we are not of this world (John 17:14,16).

As the Father loved Christ, so Christ loves us (John 14:10).

As Christ loved us, so we are to love one another (John 14:12).

As the world hated Christ, so the world will hate you (John 14:18,19).

As Christ kept His Father's commandments and abode in His love, so we are to keep Christ's commandments and abide in His love (John 14:10).

"As thou hast sent me into the world," said our Lord to the Father, "even so have I also sent them into the world" (John 17:18; cf. John 20:21).

These are tremendous, overwhelming facts about you --- greater far than any diploma or degree. Believe them! Live them! Then you will re-live His life among men.

WE HONOR

By their loving devotion to one another, by their unselfish lives lived for Christ, two familiar persons on campus have endeared themselves to us as symbolizing the spirit of CBC. The picture of these servants of the Lord walking hand in hand in CBC's halls will always remind us of the loving unity of the Spirit to be practiced by "sons and daughters noble to whom His grace appeared."

President of the Board of Directors of Columbia Bible College since its beginning, he has prayerfully guided the founding group through times of stress as well as blessing. Quiet and unassuming, she has stood with him in faith seeing God raise up the Bible College. With thanksgiving to God for their constant example of cheerfulness, humble faith and God's abounding grace in lives yielded to Him, the Junior Class dedicates the 1952 FINIAL to MR. AND MRS. H. T. PATTERSON.

"Above all these things
put on love, which is the bond of perfectness."
Col. 3:14

MR. JAMES HATCH, Advisor

A For-

During preceding years at CBC the Seniors were richly blessed as the Lord taught them through their faithful teachers and personal experiences. On entering their last year, however, there was a deeper realization than ever before that they needed more reality in their relationship to the Lord. Many of the chapel messages seemed to be intended by God to meet that need, as did the message of their faculty advisor, Mr. Hatch, at the climax of the Senior Sneak.

Under the leadership of President Larry Brown, Vice-President Dan Sulc, Secretary Jane Shute and Treasurer John Banks, one of their goals was to come to love the whole CBC family more than ever before. The fellowship of the Senior socials and the school socials helped toward the realization of this goal. Another important factor in creating more love for the family was the sharing of one another's burdens in class prayer meetings.

Perhaps their goals could be summed up in their year verse, Philippians 2:2: "Make my joy complete by being of one mind, united in mutual love, with harmony of feeling, giving your minds to one and the same object."

Having come to know the Lord in a way that they had not known him before, the Seniors look forward to making Him known in many different places at home and abroad.

Accepting New Responsibilities

For two years the entering class of 1949 had anticipated being Juniors and had looked forward to the privileges that being a Junior would bring. They soon learned, however, that these privileges were well-flavored with responsibilities. Keeping pace with their instructors in theology, science and hermeneutics was a difficult job, yet through these courses the class experienced the great joy of an increasing familiarity with God's Word.

The usual role of a Junior was well-filled by each class member, as many hours were spent in trying to discover the Senior Sneak destination, and as more time was given to the class projects, the FINIAL and the Junior-Senior Banquet. It was through this working one with the other in the love of the Lord, that the Junior Class realized anew that in Christ we are one. The class this year was under the direction of:

Continuing With Enthusiasm

The Sophomores returned this year with new enthusiasm and zeal to begin another year at C.B.C. Looking forward to the year with wondering expectancy, they chose as the year verse, "O Lord Jehovah, thou hast begun to show thy servant thy greatness and thy strong hand." Deut. 3:24.

In a very unusual way the class was united in love and purposeful prayer as they selected two specific missionaries for a class prayer project.

Class unity was furthered through the joint pursuit by the class members of Greek, prophets, and Bible book-by-book, and through the fellowship with one another on their various class socials.

Class leaders were:

FRESHMEN

MR. THOMAS PETTY, Advisor

Great Expectations

"So this is CBC!" Gradually this first haze of impressions: faces, schedules, bells swerved to fit into a pattern which, as time passed, the Freshmen realized was life at CBC. A challenging realization was that each new member of the family had been "prayed in" and prayed for by the faculty and staff during the preceding year. Prayer, then, became the keynote of this first year together under George Vines, class representative, and Mr. Thomas Petty, class advisor. Receiving the good foundation of Mr. Sells' and Mr. Hoke's Bible and philosophy courses, the class now looks forward to three more full years of knowing the Lord at CBC.

GRADUATE SCHOOL OF MISSIONS

With a purpose crystalized by the class verse, "To the praise of His glory" (Ephesians 1:12), came 73 young men and women to the Graduate School of Missions. Representing 18 states and three foreign countries, these Graduates earned many varied degrees, including anthropology, business administration, engineering, and agriculture, at 39 different colleges and universities. On this basis, they came to receive vital training, both practical and spiritual, with the goal of bearing the saving gospel of Christ to a lost world.

Highlight of the fall semester was the Grad retreat at Heise's Pond. With Dr. G. Allen Fleece, class advisor, as God's spokesman, these missionary volunteers realized anew that the "praise of His glory" is the highest privilege and very purpose of the Christian life and service.

Long an interest of the Graduate class, the Catawba Indians were chosen as class project for this year. As part of the program of evangelization and teaching, each Grad "adopted" a Catawba child for special interest and prayer.

For the daily challenge of classes under consecrated men of God, for the vast opportunities of Christian service, for the rich fellowship which has drawn the class together by the lasting link of prayer --- this year's Graduate class gives thanks to God.

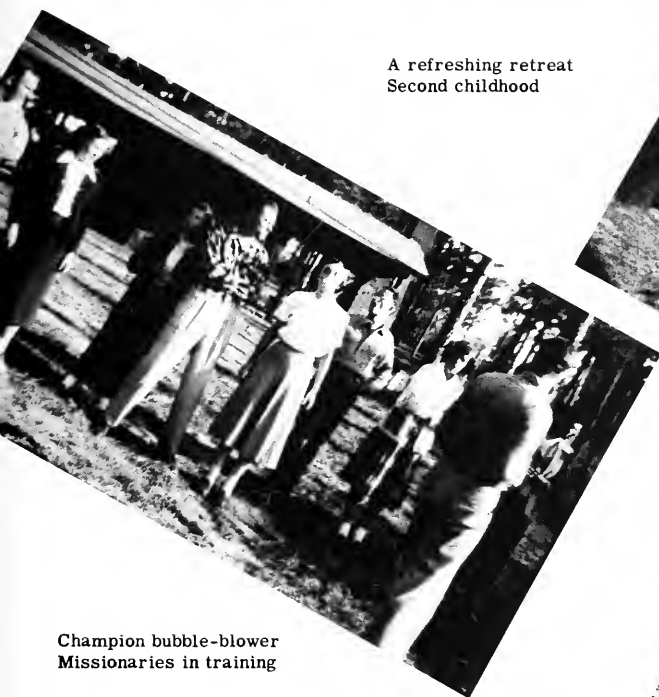

"Let every one of us please his neighbor for his good to edification." Romans 15:2

COUNCIL

Personal Contact With Every Student

"We will not be satisfied this year with simply leading and making plans for the student body as a whole, but beyond that we want to have a personal leadership touch with every student."

From its first meeting the Student Council set about reaching this goal of an individual touch with the students. For small groups they sponsored dormitory parties, and for individuals they exercised leadership through the counselling of the Morale Committee under C.B.C.'s system of Student Responsibility.

This year's Council was hard-working in its group leadership --- discussing problems, making recommendations to the Faculty, and helping students to understand their responsibility to obey those in authority as unto the Lord.

Behind everything the Council did was prayer --- prayer for unity and power among the students, prayer for the Lord's blessing which "maketh rich, and He addeth no sorrow with it."

Jesus Christ to the Uttermost

How does FMF fulfill its motto?

THE CHALLENGE TO GO - Realizing that God's passion is for the unreached, speakers and student participation programs made prominent the missionary call.

At least one-eighth of the student body attended the FMF Regional Conference held bi-annually at Toccoa, Georgia, where many have answered the call of missions.

By means of deputation teams, FMF challenged young people of many surrounding churches and colleges with Christ's command to reach every tribe.

THE CHALLENGE TO GIVE - The financial goal of FMF for this year was $1,500.00. This money was sent out in five-dollar gifts to CBC alumni on the foreign fields.

The Lord said, "Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel." The Christian Service Department of Columbia Bible College has interpreted this verse by saying, "Go ye into all Columbia and preach the gospel." To each student at CBC the words "Christian Service" denote the vital ministry that the Lord has given in varied churches, Bible clubs, hospitals, street meeting, and schools. Under the direction of Miss Dorothy Strauss, Mr. Otis Braswell and Mr. Thomas Petty, the Christian Service offices carry on a full schedule of placing each CBC student in the place where he is best suited for serving the Lord. Proper emphasis and preparation for this ministry is made by Christian Service classes conducted each week.

Wherever CBC students are found the world over, the united testimony concerns the blessings received from Christian Service assignments here in Columbia. And as the work of this office continues it is evident that this is indeed fulfilling the purpose of the College, "To know Him and to make Him known."

Faithful to the Alma Mater

CBC's Alumni Association has well expressed itself and its purpose "to combine our efforts for the advancement of the work of the Bible College in every possible way, keeping prayerfully before us the spiritual and material needs and seeking to win others to an active interest in the school." Greeting new and returning students last fall was the gleaming, newly painted main building, thus fulfilling the 1951 project. Now, for 1952, the much needed replacement of the benches in the auditorium by tablet arm opera chairs.

Other factors contributing to the fellowship among graduates are the publications of the CeBeCeQuel and Alumni Directory. The annual business meetings and homecoming provide additional means by which graduates keep in touch with one another and with CBC.

MRS. GREENMAN AND MISS WATSON, instructors in organ and piano

From the singing of the Alma Mater to the presentations of the Ambassador Choir, music has proven to be one of the most vital factors in life at CBC. The various trios and quartettes (even the impromptu ones singing in the halls), the soloists: instrumental and vocal, all add their important contribution to the music-life of each student. The Lord has indeed put a new song in our hearts, and as a family we have loved to sing it.

Advising the new president, David Renaker

Under the word "Purpose" in the Constitution of the Men's Forensic Society are these words, "The purpose of the society shall be to secure for its members literary culture, skill in parliamentary practice, and forensic experience conducive to the development of true Christian manhood." With this purpose in mind, the members of the society are able to gain practical knowledge of how to conduct meetings with parliamentary precision, keep abreast of the times by discussion of current world events and have practical experience in leadership.

One of the outstanding programs presented by the society was given for the benefit of the student body when the topic discussed was "Our Younger Generation". Five speakers presented objective facts dealing with the effects of literature, the moving pictures, and television on the younger generation today. Membership in the Forensic Society is open to all the men students of CBC.

Appreciating the Finer Arts

"She openeth her mouth with wisdom, and in her tongue is the law of kindness." Realizing the contribution that can be made by the study of literature and the finer arts, the Philobiblonian Society for women students at CBC attempts to present a well-rounded program of these factors in order to strengthen appreciation for them. The gracious atmosphere of the semi-weekly meetings adds much to the life of the women students. The purpose of the society is to give experience to women in presentation of varied programs in which all members have a part: one in participation, the other in appreciation.

Physical Fitness a Necessity

Sugar Bowl, Rose Bowl, Orange Bowl --- and Grits Bowl. CBC has its won claim to fame in its annual Thanksgiving classic, the one, the only Grits Bowl. This year Thanksgiving dawned bright, warm and clear, making the day perfect for the culmination of many intramural contests with the Sophomore-Senior team vs. the Freshmen-Junior team playing an exciting game ending in the photo-finish long pass of the Sophomore-Senior team, thus capping the contest, 9 to 0.

Hit 'em hard!

Hold that ball, Bruce!

We want a touchdown!

This intramural football has an important place in the life of CBC. Feeling that "bodily exercise profiteth a little", the men of CBC enjoy this contact sport and are thankful for the place it has in the extra-curricular activities of Columbia Bible College.

They did their best in the Thanksgiving Day tussle

Triumphant Year

At the time of this writing the CBC quintet was once again leading the "Y" Church League after a year's absence from the league. The Blue and Gold, coached by Brooks Sanders and co-captained by Marsh Davis and Bill Engels, has romped to six straight triumphs, and it looks like there will be another trophy for the trophy room at the end of the season.

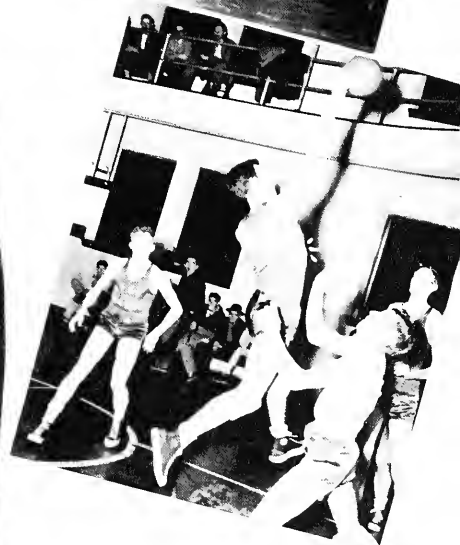

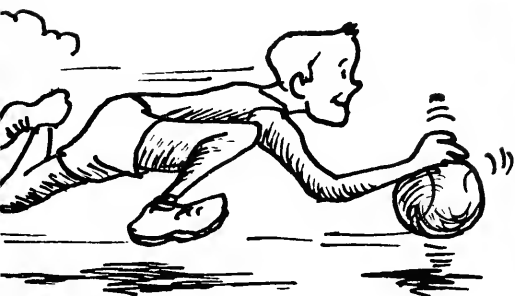

The CBC squad has also played the "B" string of University of South Carolina and the Ben Lippent team. Team members were:

Furnishing Students With CBC News

"Then hail to the Press! chosen guardian of freedom! strong sword-arm of justice! bright sunbeam of truth!" said Horace Greeley. Perhaps Mr. Greeley was a little effusive in his praise of the press, but it remains true that the newspaper has become a necessary and influential part of our society.

The CeBeCean, as the branch of the fourth estate at CBC, has also come to be recognized as a necessary part of our lives here. It has served the student body in --

- reflecting student life as a whole
- creating interest in student activities
- broadening the outlook of its readers
- serving as a means of self-expression for the students.

In its nineteen years the CeBeCean has grown from a bi-monthly to a bi-weekly publication and has changed from mimeograph to printing. One thing that has not changed is the underlying motive that the CeBeCean might be a publication that helps to carry out the motto: "To know Him and to make Him known".

Reflection of CBC Life

To present to the students a lasting memorial of their student life and to reflect to others a clear picture of life as it is at CBC has been the two-fold purpose of the Finial from its beginning in 1939.

In order to serve in this capacity this year's staff realized the necessity of a "faith which worketh by love." It was only as they possessed this faith that they were able to face the obstacles, financial, mental or physical, which met them in this project.

Let's reach our goal!

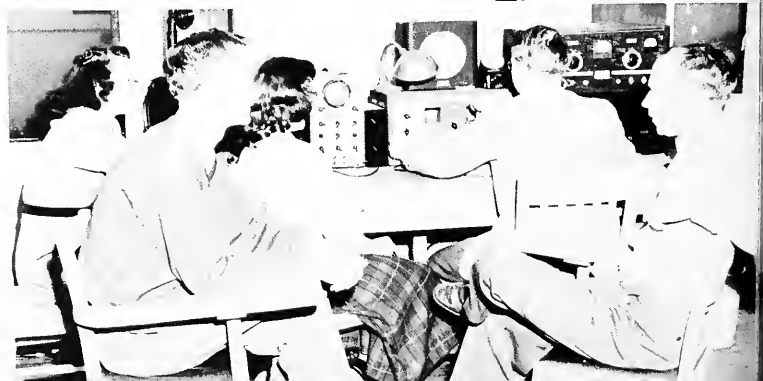

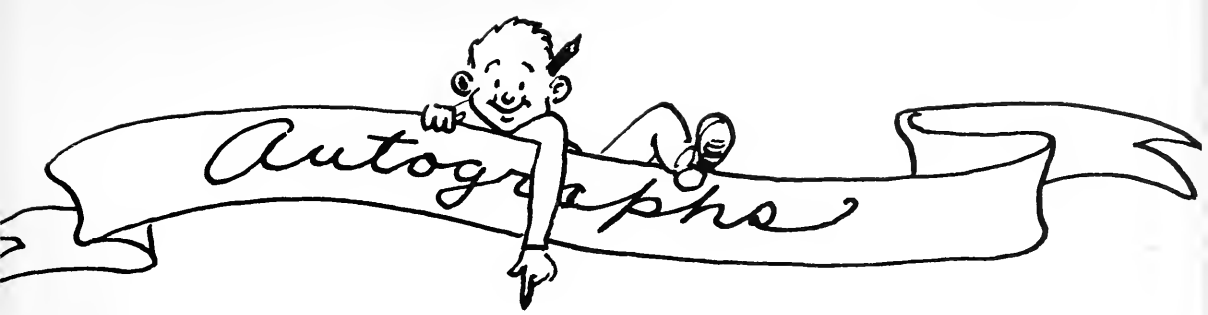

Pursuing the field of amateur radio

Working Toward a Goal

Amateur radio is taking CBC to the far places of the world. Radio Club members have found that the hard work and long hours spent in erecting antennas on top of the girls' dormitory last year were not of South Africa, Belgian Congo, Northern Rhodesia, Brazil, Peru, British West Indies, Haiti, England, Germany, and many other countries and places over the globe. The aim of the club is to establish direct contact with missionaries on the field. Once a contact has been established, messages and greetings are exchanged and a schedule is made to contact again at a future date.

At present there are three licensed operators at W4PKD and transmitters operating on the 10- and 20-meter amateur bands. The goal of the radio club for the years ahead is to have station W4PKD operating on all of the amateur bands and to establish regular missionary amateur "traffic nets" throughout the world.

SPEAKING OF INFLATION . . .

Everyone is doing it, and some are worrying over what it will do to insurance plans.

At such a time as this it is good to remember that the cost of a policy with the Fund has not been raised since 1947. This makes our contracts the best value that money can buy. Rates still remain the lowest of any company in the land.

As for the future, whatever questions arise, the soundest advice is to put money in savings. A Fund policy can be considered as a means of protection and a program of savings.
